Important Note:

Insurance is a contract of Utmost Good Faith requiring the Insured not only to disclose all information related to his health and which has a bearing on the acceptance or rejection of the Proposal by the Insurer and also not to suppress any factual information in response to the questions in the proposal form. Please examine this Policy including its attached Schedules/ Annexure if any.

In the event of any discrepancy, contact the office of the Insurer immediately, it being noted that this Policy shall be otherwise considered as being entirely in order.

In case of payment by cheque, in the event of dishonor of cheque for any reason whatsoever, insurance provided under this document automatically stands cancelled irrespective of whether a separate communication is sent or not.

Any claim arising or related to consequences of the Pre-existing diseases as defined under the Policy is excluded from the scope of Policy cover unless the insurer specifically accepts the pre-existing disease declared with or without additional premium and coverage terms specifically mentioned in the schedule.

The Policy shall become voidable at the option of Insurer, in the event of any untrue or incorrect statement, misrepresentation, non-description or non-disclosure in any material particulars declared by the Proposer in the Proposal form/personal statement, declaration and connected documents or any material information having been withheld by the Proposer or any one acting on his behalf.

The Policy is not transferable/assignable to any third parties by the Insured. However, if the Insured is permanently incapacitated or deceased, the nominee/legal heirs of the Insured may represent him/her in respect of claim under the Policy.

All terms, conditions and exclusions as per standard Policy wordings attached with this schedule.
