Event of the Fortnight

ACM 3- Day Annual Event at Oriental Campus

It was a momentous occasion for the Oriental Group to welcome distinguished and elite gathering of stalwarts in the field of computing. The 3 Day ACM Mega Event comprising ACM Symposium ARCS, ACM Decade Celebration for Women and ACM Annual Event'2023 was held from 9 to 11 February, 2023. As the world takes magnificent leap towards AI, the ACM India event, spells hope, making way for the significant researches for the benefit of society, at large.

Oriental feels privileged that the brainstorming sessions must have rubbed the grey cells of attendees and our students on campus, the same way as gold mining brings specks of it, onto the miner as well.

Scientists, students and researchers from various prestigious institutions like IISc, NIT, IIT, IIIT and experts from companies like TCS, Google, Microsoft and Persistent Systems graced the event. Posters were presented by the research scholars.

ACM India chose OIST as the venue for their mega event, that in the past, it has been hosted by prestigious Institutes IIT'S, NIT's and BITS. The participants explored the place, made pleasant memories and enjoyed the pleasant weather, of Bhopal. Details of this mega event shall follow in the next issue.

Chairman, Oriental Group receives Recognition Certificate after addressing the gathering on Annual Day of ACM 11 February, 2023.
